FROM THE BRIDGE

I hope everybody had a great year in 2010. I've been looking back through my Ozbourn cruise book reminiscing about some of the great times I had of which I'm sure all of you also experienced while you served aboard the Oz. Now is the time to start planning on attending our next reunion in Philadelphia, PA in September 2011. Attending the Ozbourn's 10th biennial reunion provides all shipmates with the opportunity to share their stories with others in attendance. If you have not been able to attend our past reunions, you have really missed some great times.

We have located more shipmates and have new members serving on the USS Ozbourn Association's list of officers.

Our reunion committee worked very hard and spent many long hours planning meaningful and fun events. It's going to be a lot of fun so please mark your calendars. Look inside the pages of this issue of the Fireball for detailed information about our next reunion.

We will be electing new Association officers at this year's reunion business meeting.

At this time, I am recommending that Ken Keene retain his job as recording secretary. For the position of treasurer, shipmates Dick Clark and Chief Philip Roberts are on the ballet for this office. We still need shipmates to step up and run for the positions of president, vice president, corresponding secretary and Fireball editor. The term of office for the people currently holding these positions will expire at the reunion in Philadelphia. Please contact me or any of the current officers if you are willing to run for office. The "Officers of the Association" appears on page two of this newsletter.

I know that someone out there just can't wait to get involved in the Association as an officer, so please contact us.

GEDUNK CALL ANSWER FOR FALL 2010

Editor's note: When the Ozbourn pulled into Pearl Harbor, HI on 13 June 1962 (my first WestPac cruise), we were one of the first ships to render honors to port for the newly dedicated USS Arizona Memorial (May 30, 1962). This interesting bit of historical information about the Ozbourn was used as a time frame for the Gedunk Call question for fall 2010.

When I went ashore on liberty in Honolulu, I encountered the H.A.S.P. So the Gedunk Call question for fall 2010 was: What does H.A.S.P. mean and what did they do for a living? Your Fireball editor received two correct answers.

Rick, Hawaiian Armed Services Police. Their job was to hassle sailors (on liberty).

Frank Rauch, (61-64)

Rick, H.A.S.P. stands for Hawaii Armed Forces Police. I believe it was formed in the late 1940s and was comprised of Navy Shore Patrol and Army Military Police. The ones that I saw looked like NFL linebackers and they had a reputation for being tough, no nonsense unit that policed the streets and night spots in Honolulu and outlying areas.

Tom Perkins, (50-53)

Editor's historical note:

In June 1948 the Hawaiian Sub-Committee of the National Munitions Board recommended that all military police and shore patrol off-post activities on Oahu be consolidated in a joint operation. Accordingly, the Commanding General, U.S. Army, Pacific, Commandant, Fourteenth Naval District, and the Commanding General, Pacific Air Command, on 26 October 1948 published a joint agreement between the three services, setting up the Hawaiian Armed Services Police Detachment (H.A.S.P.).

GEDUNK CALL QUESTION FOR WINTER 2011

The Gedunk question for winter 2011 is: Where is Pvt. Joseph W. Ozbourn buried? Clue: Look up the answer on the USS Ozbourn Association's Web site.

If you think you know the answer to this issue's Gedunk Call questions, please e-mail your response to: Rick Johnson at: johnsonsimivalley@yahoo.com

The following letter was received from the family of Joseph W. Ozbourn wishing to share some of their experiences with members of the USS Ozbourn Association.

Sign honoring Joseph W. Ozbourn.

Stone marker in front of VFW building.

Editor's note: The below listed letter was sent to shipmate Rudy Boff.

Hello:

Here are some of the pictures that we took in Herrin, IL. As you are entering town there is the welcome to Herrin (sign), and they just put up the temporary sign. The VFW has a beautiful sign with a picture of the USS Ozbourn that isn't ready yet. In front of the VFW (building) they have this stone (sign) for Joseph Ozbourn. We had the pleasure of going inside and seeing this picture that someone painted in honor of Joseph.

Also on main street in town there is a small area for our veterans. I will send you a better picture of the plaque that is on the wall. I'm not the best photographer as you can tell. The VFW has my number so when the new sign is ready, I can take more pictures.

Have a nice day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Ozbourn

On main street in Herrin, IL. there is a small area for its veterans. The statue with plaque lists the town members who served during WWI.

The book Korea Remembered: Enough of a War!, the USS Ozboourn's First Tour, 1950-1951, is a first-hand account by shipmate Charles F. Cole, as the war "sandwiched between WW II and the War in Vietnam."

Cole's historic account was first published in 1995, just in time for the dedication of the Korean War Memorial, which is near the Vietnam Wall in Washington, D.C.

MONUMENT TO NTC, SAN DIEGO — The American flag flies a short distance from the USS Recruit (photo at right). The training ship was designed as a 2/3-scale replica of a WWII DE. The land-locked ship helped instruct nearly 50,000 Naval recruits in various shipboard duties. The ship was commissioned on July 27, 1949 and was the only Navy ship not to reach water. Three other training ships were also in use, however, the Recruit is the only one left. Affectionately called the “Neversail” by recruits who trained aboard her, she was decommissioned on March 7, 1967 because it could not be classified in a computerized Naval inventory. Reconditioned in 1982, it was briefly used as a training guided missile frigate. On August 13, 2005, the Neversail was dedicated as California Registered Historic Landmark No. 1042.
